MORIOKA HISTORY AND CULTURE MUSEUM

Feel the beat of castle town Morioka!

What is the Morioka History and Culture Museum?

Morioka History and Culture Museum was opened in July 2011 in Morioka Castle Site Park (Iwate Park). With Morioka Castle Site and Castle town as a wide-area museum, our object is to contribute to the local revitalization.

We collect, preserve and exhibit materials related to Morioka's history and culture. We would like to welcome you on the occasion of your visit to Morioka.

Mission Statement

Inheritance

We want to preserve valuable materials and pass on our history and culture to the citizens of tomorrow.

Contribution

We want to contribute to the vitality of our region by supporting tourism and recreation and creating activity.

Creation

As a place of learning, we want to cultivate the leaders of tomorrow and create the new living culture of Morioka.

Growth and development

Together with our citizens, we want to develop and grow as a base for lifelong learning and civic collaboration.
